

ANNOUNCEMENT

Please be informed that the new website of the Global Financial Innovation Network \(GFIN\) has been launched. This website brings together all information relating to GFIN in a single source, including details on membership, regulators' innovation services and all GFIN's publications. The website also includes key regulatory information for each of the GFIN Members and Observers. This compendium includes each regulator's geographical jurisdiction, the types of innovation services it offers, whether or not it participates in the cross-border testing programme, its specific requirements for cross-border testing and its contact information. Click on the name of each institution to see the information relevant to that regulator. For information relevant to the Centrale Bank van Curaçao en Sint Maarten, click on this link.

As part of the launch, also the “Cross-border testing – lessons learned” report has been published. This report reflects on the cross-border testing pilot, including the achievements and challenges GFIN has faced.
